

St. John's Prep Student Chromebook Contract

The use of school-supplied Chromebooks is a privilege that comes with responsibility.
Remember, the device is always property of St. John's Prep, not a student's personal device.

My initials after each subsequent section and signature at the bottom indicate that I have read the agreement and understand the consequences of not following the guidelines stated herein. Further, my signature acknowledges that the school has clearly defined the expectations of Chromebook use and that any violation of the guidelines or this contract represent a knowing and willful breaking of the rules.

I understand that it is my responsibility to:

Initials _____

- Visually inspect my Chromebook and report any discrepancies to SJP
- Choose key search words carefully when searching the Internet
- Never give out my personal information over the Internet
- Be on the correct site and stay on task
- I am responsible for the repair or replacement of stolen or abused hardware or materials.

I understand that the following are unacceptable uses for my Chromebook:

Initials _____

- Attempting to bypass or alter computer security
- Attempting, assisting, or gaining unauthorized access to computers (intentional or unintentional)
- Modifying the wallpaper or computer background
- Downloading unapproved software
- This device is for schoolwork only. I must sign into your school issued Google education account. No other accounts (Google or otherwise) may be accessed on the school-issued Chromebooks in school or at home.
- Damaging in any way defacing the Chromebook including stickers, decals, etc.
- Accessing inappropriate websites or social media
- Accessing another student's files
- Inappropriate use of any email program including Gmail, Yahoo, Hotmail, etc.
- Eating or drinking when Chromebooks are in use
- Any other unlawful, unethical, or inappropriate use of Chromebooks
